

Important Steps From Clinician to Manager

- Clear understanding of what is expected of you as a manager
- Orientation process
- Set clear expectations with each member of your team
- Weekly supervision with each team member
- Regularly scheduled team supervision
- Focus on building a team and enthusiasm for team
- Create process for staffing difficult cases
- Must be intentional about learning the roles and functions of the other parts of the organization
- Idea that you never stop learning

